Trust the experts in Teacher's Home
for business and professional clients.
Channel has over 30 years experience in this field with clients from Europe

If you need to improve your English fast in the shortest possible time, look no further .....

Our aim is to empower you to communicate effectively in international business by using your English actively to gain confidence and knowledge. Speaking, discussing, debating, listening and modeling your language, you make continual progress, experiencing at first hand English culture.

Living in the trainer's home ensures a relaxed environment allowing you to enjoy every aspect of the course, stimulates your learning and boosts your achievements.

After assessment, the trainer designs a study programme relevant to your needs. Throughout the course you receive regular feedback and the training is reviewed daily to ensure all attainable targets are met. When your course is over, we help you set up a realistic plan for further study.

Our trainers and their families are happy to help you put the language into practice in real situations outside lessons. Talk to other family members, share a lunch break with native speakers, enjoy dinnertime conversation and informal outings, or just go to the pub and chat to other English people.

This is a perfect opportunity to practise the language needed for socializing with your clients and international colleagues when you want to feel confident and in control. No time is ever wasted during your stay in the UK.

Your choice of formula depends on two main factors—how many hours you wish to study, the time you have available and the level of intensity and specialization you require.

Business English

This is a General Business Course with one host trainer. Choose from 15, 20, or 25 hours per week of one to one study while enjoying practice in your free time. Lessons are tailored to your needs. Ideal for those starting to use English in a business context or brushing up on their existing knowledge.

Role play, simulation, use of authentic and up-to-date materials give you the extra boost and confidence for the next tricky business scenario.

Professional PLUS with 2 TRAINERS

This formula is UNIQUE to Channel and guarantees maximum intensity to accelerate your progress. It is the most popular option for clients with limited time to spend in the UK and those requiring specialised training. Choose either 25 or 30 hours of lessons per week plus full immersion practice.

Mornings are spent with the host trainer with 15 hours of one to one classes. The functional language relevant to your business needs is studied and time can be spent on structure and vocabulary.

The afternoons are enlivened by a second trainer who visits the house and brings a new approach to stimulate and stretch your language practice in the specific areas you require. For example, recoding and delivering a presentation, re-creating negotiating scenarios, tackling language strategies for success in meetings.

Both trainers will encourage your active participation in different scenarios.
